RONNIE MABRA NAMED TO GEORGIA TREND'S 2024 LEGAL ELITE

ATLANTA, DECEMBER 1, 2024 – Ronnie Mabra has been selected among Georgia Trend magazine's 2024 Legal Elite. The prestigious and highly anticipated annual list features Georgia lawyers who are considered by their legal peers to be the best in their practice areas.

Since 2002, Georgia Trend has compiled its Legal Elite rankings after polling State Bar of Georgia members for nominations. Georgia lawyers then vote for the most effective attorneys in 15 different practice areas. Mabra was honored for his contributions to personal injury law.

"I am humbled that Georgia's legal community saw fit to tap me for Legal Elite again," the Mabra Law founder and managing partner said. "I have a deep respect for my peers and colleagues. We are driven by a similar love for the people of Georgia and respect for the institutions that provide justice to our state's citizens."
